A NEW WAY TO FIND A HEALTH PLAN

Vermonters now have a new way to find a health plan. Through Vermont Health Connect, you can make side-by-side comparisons of private health plans and see if you're eligible for public health plans or financial help to lower the cost of premiums and out-of-pocket costs.

In-person assistance is available from Vermont Health Connect Navigators to help you figure it all out.

Call 1-855-899-9600 toll-free to find a Navigator near you.

Find the plan that's right for you.

To get started with your application, gather the following items for you and your family:

- ☐ Social Security Numbers
- ☐ Employer and income information
- ☐ Your most recent tax returns, if available
- ☐ Pay stubs or W-2 forms – Wage and Tax Statements
- ☐ Anticipated medical and prescription needs for all people needing coverage
- ☐ Information on offers of job-based insurance, if any (VermontHealthConnect.gov's Employer Coverage Tool can help)
